Some Sensational Allegations Made Against Mrs. Magner,

WHO ADOPTED THE GIRL

AND NOW THE MOTHER WANTS IT BACK AGAIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Magner, by which the mother of the child, Mrs. Smith, formerly Mrs. Canter, and the woman's present husband, Paul F. Smith, seek to regain the possession and custody of the little girl on the ground that its mother by adoption treats it in a est cruel and inhuman manner.

The petition was filed in the district court yesterday by Paul F. Smith and Eva Carter Smith, by their attorney, George Westervelt. It sets out that on June 28, 1897, an order was made Judge Hiles making Ethel Canter the adopted child of Edward Magner and Sarah Magner. The child Ethel is the daughter of Mrs. Smith by her former husband, William G. Canter, now de-ceased. She is now about 5 years of age. The widow of William G. Canter was married to Mr. Smith on Nov. 25

THE SENSATIONAL ALLEGATIONS. The petitioners then make the start-ng allegations that continuously since The petitioners then make the start-ling allegations that continuously since the adoption of little Ethel, the de-fendant, Sarah Magner, has treated and still treats the little one with the utmost cruelty by heating and striking her on the head, hands, body and face with sticks, pleces of board, hair brushes, wooden ladles and other ar-ticles, and also an instrument in the shape of a club, made of heavy leather, On number of occasions, it is charged, un occasions, it is charged, has dragged the child about by the base and has pulled handfuls of hair out by the roots. It is specified in the complaint that on one occasion the defendant struck the child in the face several times with a rough piece of inch board about a foot long, inflicting wounds on its face and causing blood to flow freely from IIs nose and mouth. This and similar cruelty and ill-treat-ment of said child by Mrs. Magner, it is alleged, is well known to the said Edward Magner, who, nevertheless, suffers and permits her to continue the same.

By reason of the acts of cruelty mentioned the petitioners allege that the child's health has been greatly impaired; that it has wasted away and has lost its strength and spirits, and has materially decreased in weight during said period; that the child's health and safety are greatly endangered by being left in custody of the defendants, the charge continues, and unless removed there is imminent danger that defendant, Sarah Magner, will inflict serious and permanent injury upon said child. It is claimed that defendants are unfit persons to have the fendants are unfit persons to have the care and custody of little Ethel.

Accompanying the petition are affidavits from Maggie Dowding, a domestic recently in the employ of Mrs.

Magner, and Jennie Joransen, who was a servant at the Magner house.

Judge Hiles made an order that the child be removed from the custody of Mr. and Mrs. Magner and placed in the Davis Deaconess Home on Third South and cut off speeches to five minutes seach and then the ball rolled on.

THE BALLOT.

Everybody seconded and nominated until Van Cott, Holt, Spencer and Mofplaced in the home as directed by the LOOKS WELL AND HAPPY. The appearance of the child does not by any means substantiate the allegations made by Mr. and Mrs. Smith. Ethel is a small child, but looks well and healthy and has no scars or bruises about her person, such as it would seem would be the inevitable result of such treatment as she is alleged to seem would be the inevitable result of such treatment as she is alleged to have been subjected to. She is well dressed, neat, clean and tidy, and an-swers questions intelligently for a child of her years. She, however, makes contradictory statements, at one time saying that her Mama (Mrs. Magner) treated her well and again that she treated her well and again that she whipped her.

Mr. Magner is the well known mining man and is at present in Idaho.

Mrs. Magner denies in the most positive terms that there is an iota of truth in the allegations of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, founded on the affidavit of the two girls. At the time that Mr. and Mrs. Magner adopted the child its mother, Mrs. Canter, was a widow in very poor circumstances and gladly. very poor circumstances and gladly consented to the Magners taking the little one. Since then she married Smith and Mrs. Magner and her friends claim that she is taking this means to regain her child. Mrs. Magner says the worther may have the child, we she other may have the child, but she feels very much annoyed at charges of such a nature being made in regard to her treatment of lithel.

MR. GULICK'S STATEMENT W. P. Gullek, who lives at the Mag-W. P. Gullek, who lives at the Magner of house, says there is no truth in the statement that Mrs. Magner of treated Ethel. She had to be corrected occasionally, like all children, but that was done in a mild and proper manner. He says there is no child in Salt Lake which receives better of more kindly treatment, or is more indulged, and she is very fond of Mrs. Magner, whom she knows only as he hama. She has all the comforts of life and pla, igs and all those little trifles which grauden the heart of a child.
